

20 Glorious Years

of EFC

Singing with Nigel

Our first Christmas concert with Nigel at St David's Church
2000

And in 2002!

Competitions

October 2000, The Elgar Choral Competition,
Worcester Cathedral

First in class and second overall
(Nigel's Bath Camerata first!)

Exeter Performing Arts Festival
EFC entered 6 classes
- 2 Distinctions and 4 Honours

March 2005 Exeter Performing Arts Festival
EFC entered 5 classes - all Honours

Publicity
Photo
2004

Makeshift recording studio at St
Michael's Church
Mt Dinham
for 'A Time of Snow' CD
2005

Britten's 'War Requiem' Project 2005

Commemorating the 60th anniversary of the end of World War II, EFC performed Benjamin Britten's 'War Requiem' in Yaroslavl, Russia, as part of a collaborative project involving choirs from Exeter, Yaroslavl, and Hanau in 2005. This ambitious endeavour saw the work performed in all three cities, reflecting the international spirit of Britten's composition.

Our maestro with chamber orchestra

Dmitry Volosnikov
& Nigel conducting simultaneously

The 2 Yaroslavl Conductors, Nigel & Dmitry

Maestros
at work
2005

Regular Wednesday rehearsal at
The Maynard
School
2006

Some light relief before
Rachmaninov Vespers, Buckfast Abbey
2006

Mozart
Mass in
C Minor
Workshop
2006

Nigel's 60th Birthday Celebration

We sang Rossini's 'Petite Messe Solennelle', one of Nigel's favourite works,
with Bath Bach Choir, Bath Camerata, & CBBC Junior Choir 2007

Verdi Requiem
4 choir collaboration with EFC,
Bad Homburg, Hanau & Rennes
2008

Never too late for a bit more practice!

Another
birthday!
2009

With our President
Sir David Willcocks' 90th Birthday Bash
at The Royal Albert Hall
Handel 'Coronation Anthems'
2009

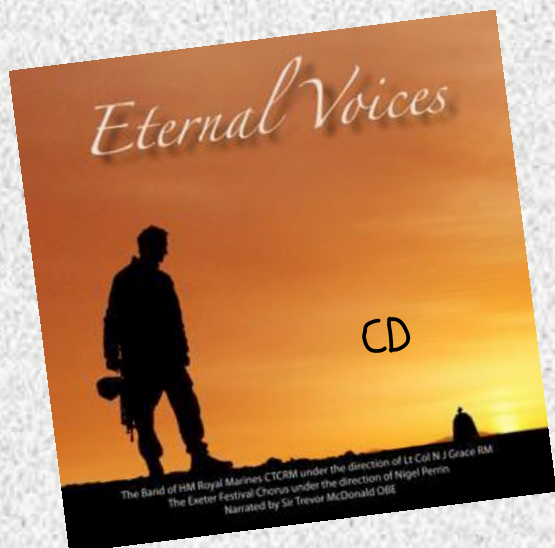

Dress Rehearsal at The Mint Church
Exeter, 2009

Eternal Voices

Exeter Cathedral 2010

A tribute to those who were injured or died in the Afghanistan conflict. The piece was commissioned by the Royal Marines Band Service and was performed by the Band of Her Majesty's Royal Marines, EFC and narrator Sir Trevor McDonald.

The Big Mac 2013

James MacMillan's St John Passion in 2013

Performed by The Exeter Festival Chorus, along with the Bath Bach Choir and the Wellensian Consort. This collaboration, conducted by Nigel Perrin and accompanied by the Southern Sinfonia, was staged in Exeter Cathedral and Wells Cathedral. The performance was noted for its intensity and technical demands, with the combined choirs delivering the complex choral parts and baritone Mark Stone portraying Christus. The event received praise for its powerful delivery and innovative approach to this contemporary masterpiece.

Christmas Gala Concert
With Lesley Garrett
Exeter Cathedral 2014

The Wind in the Willows

Dartington Great Hall 2016

Exeter Christmas Market 2017

Summer Social on the Exe Estuary

In loving memory.
God bless you, Nigel.